

RESERVATION AT GREENHORN CREEK GUEST RANCH

Making a Reservation to Greenhorn Creek Guest Ranch is Easy... First Decide When To Visit...

- Summer 2013 – June through August is our peak season, where we offer lots of fun activities, including 2 horseback rides a day, 2 cookouts on the trail, and each night there are fun evening activities including line dancing, bonfire sing alongs, ride-in movie, karaoke, and frog racing! If you prefer a full week dude ranch vacation, check-in is on Saturday at lunchtime and check-out is on Friday after a hearty cowboy breakfast!

- Spring & Fall May - October/November are what we call our "shoulder seasons" and we offer most everything that is available in the summer, though not on the same schedule as summertime. If it is early spring or later in the fall, for example, the frogs are hunkered down in the pond and don't feel like racing! The rates are about 10% lower in the shoulder seasons and our occupancy is a little lower. The shoulder seasons are a great time to take advantage of our Weekend Getaway or other special events

- Half-Week Stays are available any time during the shoulder seasons as well as Summer! You can book a 3-day vacation from Saturday - Tuesday or Tuesday to Friday, just give us call! Though activities are scheduled so that you get a cookout each half of the week, we have horseback riding every day and 3 meals a day! We also have a weekend getaway special and a mid week special to choose from! Come any time and stay as long as you want Greenhorn Ranch is now available to the public for our famous chuck house meals and beautiful western trail riding every day that we are open! We do ask that you call ahead to assure availability. Come any time and stay as long as you want!
